

Illinois Rangers Support Foundation

PROPOSAL FOR FINANCIAL SUPPORT

Any organization seeking financial support from the Illinois Rangers Support Foundation (“Foundation”) must submit a completed Proposal for Financial Support (“Proposal”) signed by its authorized representative. Submission of a Proposal does not guarantee approval. Any and all funds granted by the Foundation to the organization named herein must be used in the manner and for the purposes stated in this Proposal. Any alternate uses of funds must be approved in writing by an authorized representative of the Foundation. Acceptance of funds from the Foundation obligates the organization named herein to provide a written report of fund usage and expense report with receipts indicating how the funds were used annually and until all funds have been utilized. If funds are used for any purpose, project or activity not described in this Proposal or not approved in writing by the Foundation, then the Foundation may recoup or withhold the full amount of funds previously distributed to or earmarked for said organization, and may reject any future proposals for financial support.

Please attach additional sheets if more space is needed.
Print the organization’s name on each sheet.
